

Greatest Hits

Posted by Peter on 8 April 2007

Listen to English has been on the web for 15 months, and there are over 180 episodes. If you subscribe with iTunes, you can find the last 25 episodes and download them. But how can you find and download older episodes into iTunes?

One way is to find the episodes you want on the web site. For each episode, click on "Download mp3" and then play the downloaded files in iTunes. But this takes time, and only the audio file is downloaded - not the text of the podcast.

But now there is a new way! You can subscribe to Listen to English - Greatest Hits. This is a special RSS feed that contains 21 of the best and most popular episodes of 2006. Episodes like "Lice!", "Fun Run" and "The English are fat and want to live in France". I have added full ID3 tags to the audio files, so that each episode has a picture which will display on your iPod screen, and text which will display either on your iPod or on Windows Media Player. You can subscribe and download these classic episodes here, or by clicking on "Greatest Hits" in the sidebar menu on the website.

Or, in iTunes click "Advanced", then "Subscribe to Podcast", and then type or copy this URL into the box:
<http://feeds.feedburner.com/ListenToEnglish-GreatestHits>

I wish you a very happy Easter. Next podcast episode on about 18 April.

Photo by Matt McGee/flickr

This is the text of the podcast at <http://www.listen-to-english.com/index.php?id=279>.